

Ceres Global Ag Corp. Announces Commencement of Legal Proceedings by The Scoular Company

Toronto, ON, June 16, 2014 – Ceres Global Ag Corp. (“Ceres” or the “Corporation”) (TSX: CRP) announces that it has received a complaint initiated by The Scoular Company (“Scoular”) in the United States District Court of the District of Minnesota. Scoular is seeking injunctive relief and unspecified damages relating to the development and construction of a grain facility at the Corporation’s Northgate Commodity Logistics Centre.

The Corporation is currently reviewing the complaint and intends to vigorously defend against this action.

About Ceres Global Ag Corp. (ceresglobalagcorp.com)

Ceres Global Ag Corp. is a Toronto-based company focused on two primary businesses: a Grain Storage, Handling and Merchandising unit, anchored by its 100% ownership of Riverland Ag Corp., and a Commodity Logistics unit, containing its 25% interest in Stewart Southern Railway Inc. and its development of the Northgate, SK Commodity Logistics Centre. Riverland Ag Corp. is a collection of nine (9) grain storage and handling assets in Minnesota, New York, and Ontario having aggregate storage capacity of approximately 48 million bushels. Riverland Ag also manages two (2) facilities in Wyoming on behalf of its customer-owner. Stewart Southern Railway Inc. is a short-line railway with a range of 130 kilometres that operates in South-eastern Saskatchewan. The Northgate Commodity Logistics Centre is a proposed $90 million grain, oil and oilfield supplies transloading site being developed in conjunction with Riverland Ag and several potential energy company partners, connected to BNSF Railway.
